'Out of Order' Charm

This charm, made to give attention and humour to your one-sided deafness, fits any small pierced earring hoop. It can also be attached to a pin and worn on the lapel.

- ❖ Dainty
- ❖ Classy
- ❖ Clearly Readable
- ❖ Excellent gift

It helps share the responsibility when listening to conversations. Your friends and family will welcome the visible reminder of which ear is out of commission. It is a light-hearted conversation piece to use when meeting new people and introducing your hearing deficit. It is a reminder to others that your hearing has gone, not your Humour!

Available in Sterling Silver $35.00

Also available in 14k white or yellow gold (earrings still available).

This charm was designed by our very own Linda Gray (co-founder of ANAC).

Out of Order Lapel Pins still available for $10.00 each
